Parish Priest: Father Joseph Kiganda, CSSpFr. Peter Otuonkpaikhian, CSSp. (Ass. P/P St Mary's Douglas)Deacons:Rev. Alan Molloya.molloy@rcaol.org.ukRev. Graeme Eastong.easton@rcaol.org.uk

Last Sunday we celebrated 'Low' Sunday (as it used to be called), signifying that it was the Sunday at the end of the Easter Octave. All of our Scripture readings at Mass and the Daily Office prayers during the Octave of Easter were all celebrated as a continuation of the celebration of the Last Supper and the proclamation of the mystery of our faith – the death and resurrection of Jesus and Parousia i.e. his second coming. The Octave we recently celebrated is a reflection of the emphasis placed on the importance of Easter to us. All Masses are celebrated as a continuation and memorial of that first Mass, the Last Supper.

In today's first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, we hear of Peter's public statement, on that day of Pentecost, of his witness to Jesus' resurrection. He is filled with the Holy Spirit! Today's Gospel again recounts the journey on the road to Emmaus, when Jesus opens the eyes of the travellers to the message in Scripture, to an understanding of his incarnation. Jesus meets and walks with those travellers. He asks them a question and listens to them. He then offers them insight and understanding. He 'breaks bread' with them – then their eyes are opened.

What does that story tell us? It tells us to: ask, to seek, and, to knock - the door will be opened. Our questions will be answered! It tells us to seek and discover the real light in our lives, the true meaning of Christ's presence as the source of that light – God's grace and love for us. It tells us not to let that light go out but to nurture it, develop it and, most importantly, then go and share it with others – just as the two disciples on the road to Emmaus did when their eyes were opened. Just as Peter did on that day of Pentecost. Just as Jesus did through his life, death and resurrection.

Emmaus means 'warm spring'. Perhaps we should think of it as a reflection of Scripture as our 'warm spring', our source of faith, which we can nurture and allow to bubble or spring up within us, to give life to ourselves and to others. Pentecost is the time that the Holy Spirit descended on the Apostles and represents the beginning of the Church's mission to bring God's message of love and redemption to the world. We are that church – each and every one of us. Dcn Alan
