NOTICES

A word of congratulations and sincere thanks to all who participated so well in the ceremonies of Holy Week and Easter. During Lent our 7.30am Mass in Ramsey was very well attended, with congregations of over thirty some mornings. Magnificent response.

Ramsey. The Requiem Mass for Christine Price will be celebrated tomorrow (Monday) at 10am.

Saturday 22nd April, 10.00 a.m. – 3.30 p.m. | Fed by Angels – a day of refreshment with Elijah.

Elijah was quite a character; a faithful prophet of God with an amazing ministry, yet he found himself alone and hiding, worn out and fearful. His story, and the ways in which God ministered to him, still speak to us today.

Join us for this day of refreshment; come just as you are, especially if you're feeling you've been giving a lot and the tank's empty! The day will include times of gentle worship, reflection on the story of Elijah and great food, led by David Shirliff and the Thie dy Vea team. The day will close with a focus on healing and wholeness with an opportunity to receive anointing and prayer.

Refreshments will be served from 9.30 a.m. and lunch will be provided.

Cost: we invite a donation in the region of £25.

Saturday 20th May - Saturday 27th May - Praying the Keels Week

This week has become a firm favourite in the calendar for many; an opportunity to share with others in some fantastic walks, to visit the remains of some of our ancient keeills, to appreciate the peace and beauty of these 'thin places' and to reflect on our own life's journey.

Sunday 21st May, 2.30 – 4.30 p.m. | Mini-pilgrimage

Join us for a self-guided mini-pilgrimage in the walled garden at Thie dy Vea that will provide refreshment for body, mind and soul.

An opportunity to journey, reflect and wonder leading to a time of shared thanksgiving to close. Some on-site parking will be available. Come suitably dressed for the weather.

Refreshments will be provided.

Thursday 25th May, 7.30 – 9.00 p.m. | Armchair Pilgrimage

Would you love to get out and about on a keeills walk, but can't manage it this year, for whatever reason? Then why not join us for an armchair pilgrimage, a virtual keeills walk that will engage the senses and lift the spirit. All from the comfort of the big lounge at Thie dy Vea. Places are limited and booking is essential. Refreshments will be provided.
