Saturday Strawberry Fair 24th June.

Looking forward to seeing as many Parishioners as possible with their friends and family at this event in the marquee in the Church grounds. Items for stalls can be left in the Narthex during the week. Donations for the cake stall greatly received please bring to the Church on Saturday morning. Many thanks.

Island Spirituality Network

The next Island Spirituality Network meeting will be held on Saturday 17th June at St. John's Mill, 10am - 1pm.

Our guest speaker will be the eminent Biblical scholar, teacher and author, Fr. Nicholas King SJ, whose these will be "Going deeper into the Mystery" - the Gospel of St. John. Fr. Nick is currently one of the Jesuit staff at Far, Church in London. Suggested donation £10 but no obligation.

Thie Dy Vea, Retreat House, Peel

Friday 30th June - Sunday 2nd July | Beginners' Retreat

Never experienced a retreat before? This is the ideal place to start. Jesus said 'come away by yourselves to a quiet place'. During this weekend retreat we invite you to do just that, and in the peaceful surroundings discover different ways into prayer. Complete beginners are most welcome, no experience necessary.

Led by members of the Thie dy Vea house team. This will be a fully-catered residential retreat.

Starting time: Friday 4 p.m. onwards for registration.

Finishing time: Sunday after lunch, approx. 2 p.m.

Cost: ensuite room £240 single occupancy, £195 per person based on 2 sharing; non-ensuite double rooms £210 single occupancy, £170 per person for a couple

We have a very limited number of places left on this retreat. Contact us for more details.

Tuesday 18th July 25th 7.30 – 9.00 p.m. | Armchair Pilgrimage

Join us for a virtual pilgrimage walk from the comfort of the big lounge at Thie dy Vea. This pilgrimage will take us to the parish of Maughold and include a glen, out of the way burial places, crosses, keeills and a holy well.

Places are limited and booking in advance is essential.

Refreshments will be served.

We invite a donation in the region of £10 for this event.
