Saturday 28th October, 10 a.m. –12.30 p.m.
Resting and wrestling – a quiet morning with Jacob.

Have you ever become aware of unexpected or seemingly undeserved blessings in your life? Have you had those times when life's circumstances have meant faith was difficult as you wrestled with big issues? If so this quiet morning might be for you.

Join David Shirtliff, Warden of Thie dy Vea, as he opens up two episodes in the life of the Old Testament patriarch Jacob. We'll explore how these lovely, ancient stories have the power to speak into our lives today.

Refreshments will be served from 9.30a.m. Optional soup & roll lunch.

Suggested donation of £10, or £15 to include lunch.

Saturday 11th November, 7.30 p.m.
An evening with Malcolm Guite

We're delighted to be welcoming Malcolm Guite to Thie dy Vea.

Malcolm is a Fellow of Girton College, Cambridge, a poet, priest, academic and singer-songwriter. His published works include 'The Singing Bowl', 'Sounding the Seasons', and 'David's Crown'. During the evening Malcolm will be sharing from his works in what will be a memorable event. Do join us.

Suggested donation of £20 to include cheese and wine/cordials.

Please feel free to take this bulletin away with you.
