Pope Francis' prayer intention for the month of April is that the dignity and worth of women be recognised throughout the world.

"In many parts of the world, women are treated like the first thing to get rid of," Pope Francis said. "There are countries where women are forbidden to access aid, open a business, or go to school," he said, adding: "In these places, they are subject to laws that make them dress a certain way. And in many countries, genital mutilation is still practiced."

He urged the world to "not deprive women of their voice. Let us not rob all these abused women of their voice. They are exploited, marginalised." The Holy Father pointed out that "in theory, we all agree that men and women have the same dignity as persons. But this does not play out in practice. Governments need to commit to eliminate discriminatory laws everywhere and to work toward guaranteeing women's human rights," Francis said.

"Let us respect women. Let us respect their dignity, their basic rights. And if we don't, our society will not progress."

He concluded with a prayer: "Let us pray that the dignity and worth of women be recognised in every culture, and for an end to the discrimination they face in various parts of the world."

Introducing the Enneagram. Thursday 1st & Friday 2nd August, 10.00 a.m. – 3.00 p.m. led by Andrew de Smet, the Archbishop of York's Advisor in Pastoral Care. We're delighted to be able to offer this two-day course led by a skilled and experienced practitioner. Andrew is an Anglican priest, spiritual director and counsellor/psychotherapist, and has had an interest in the Enneagram for many years.

The Enneagram is a subtle and complex tool for spiritual and personal development, the use of which can transform your spiritual growth and relationships. In Christian spirituality the Enneagram can assist in our unfolding relationship with God.

The Enneagram is a nine-pointed figure enclosed in a circle. The nine personality types outline the sets of assumptions we live our lives by, feel about ourselves and relate to others. These types are grouped in to three centres: instinctive, thinking and feeling, which reflect fundamental ways of approaching life and survival.

In this course we will introduce the Enneagram and look at the types. We will also look at the further dimensions of "arrow theory", "wings" and make links to Christian spirituality and prayer. This course is for anyone interested in spiritual and self-development. Among others those in ministry (ordained and lay), counsellors and spiritual directors will find it useful in their work and development.

The cost of this two-day course, to include lunch each day and refreshments is £65. Places are limited, please contact us to book.
