News from Rome

Pope Francis has authorized the promulgation of a decree recognizing miracles attributed to several blessed, paving the way for their canonization, the Vatican said on Thursday.

The Holy See said in a press release that Pope Francis met with Cardinal Marcello Semeraro, prefect of the Dicastery for the Causes of Saints, on Thursday and "has decided to convene a consistory, which will also concern the canonization" of four Blessed: Carlo Actis (the first millennial to be beatified by the Catholic Church), Giuseppe Allamano (an Italian priest and founder of the Consolata Missionaries), Marie-Léonie Paradis (a Canadian Catholic nun who established the Little Sisters of the Holy Family in 1880), and Elena Guerra (the founder of the Oblates of the Holy Spirit).

From Canon Philip.....

The first weeks of June here at The Beda are very full and busy as our Top Year pack up their rooms ready for their return to their respective countries to prepare for their Ordinations as Priests. . This year we have 7 Priestly Ordinations to look forward to at various stages over the next months; 2 in Scotland, 2 in England, 1 in India 1 in Ireland and 1 in Mauritius. There is also the small but not insignificant matter of end-of-year examinations, marking , and then the Board of Examiners so that we can get all the results forwarded to Saint Mary's University in London for inclusion in the July Graduation ceremony. On Wednesday 12th June we have the last full day of the College Year which is marked by the Ordination to the Diaconate of 3 of our seminarians, Philip McMahon (Franciscan from Ireland), Philip Thornley of Leeds (England) and Louis Kwadwo (Benedictine from Ghana) ; please remember them and all our Ordinands in your prayers that they may be ardent but gentle servants of the Gospel.

Please feel free to take this bulletin away with you.
