Day of Eucharistic Adoration

2025 will be celebrated as a Jubilee Year in the universal Church. In preparation for this, Archbishop Malcolm has requested a day of Eucharistic Adoration for the Archdiocese on Saturday 21st. September 2024. It will take place at the Cathedral in Liverpool. However, a similar island-wide pilgrimage will take place at at our Cathedral Church of St. Mary of the Isle, Douglas, with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from 10am - 5pm, with each Parish taking responsibility for their period of Adoration. More details later.

St. Maughold's Week

Celebrating the Heritage of the Isle of Man's Patron Saint, a week of celebration will be held 27th July - 4th August. There are some fliers available, and also full information about it on the Notice Board. Please support the various events as far as possible as this is a wonderful initiative to honour St. Maughold.

Postcards, showing St. Maughold, which we have had printed of the banner in the Church, are available in the Narthex.

Assisted Suicide Bill

The Assisted Dying Bill is approaching its final stage in the House of Keys. Now is the final time to contact your MHK. We know that groups in favour of the Bill are mobilising people to write. We don't want our MHK's to be in any doubt that our concerns are deep and that we are still strongly opposed to the intentional killing of people, with all the dangers it brings.

Please feel free to take this bulletin away with you.
